

Buttons, the baby pilot whale who became the first whale in history to have a complete electrocardiogram performed on her heart, jumps 10 feet during the whale show at Marineland of the Pacific to reach for a mackerel from the hand of trainer Clark Bokers. Buttons — 10½-foot-long and weighing 950 pounds — opens wide to receive the tasty morsel.

TRIAL SCENE from the prize-winning British drama, A MAN FOR ALL SEASONS, comes to the Greek Theatre direct from its New York run on Monday, July 22. It runs through August 3. William Roderick stars as Sir Thomas More. Also starred are George Rose, Bruce Gordon, and Albert Dekker. Robert Bolt, who won recent recognition for his screenplay of LAWRENCE OF ARABIA, wrote the award-winning play, which is set in the turbulent period of Henry VIII's reign.

13,000 See Finalists in Band Event

Thirteen thousand spectators greeted the Battle of the Bands finalists in the Hollywood Bowl, June 28, and saw the Van Nuys and North Hollywood Men of Note win the Sweepstakes Award.

Mike Ward of North Hollywood, who played trumpet with the Men of Note; Jeff McKnight, Santa Monica High School's drums player; and John Newborn, a Torrance trombonist, were named outstanding solo instrumentalists in the three-hour program, which featured 126 musicians and vocalists.

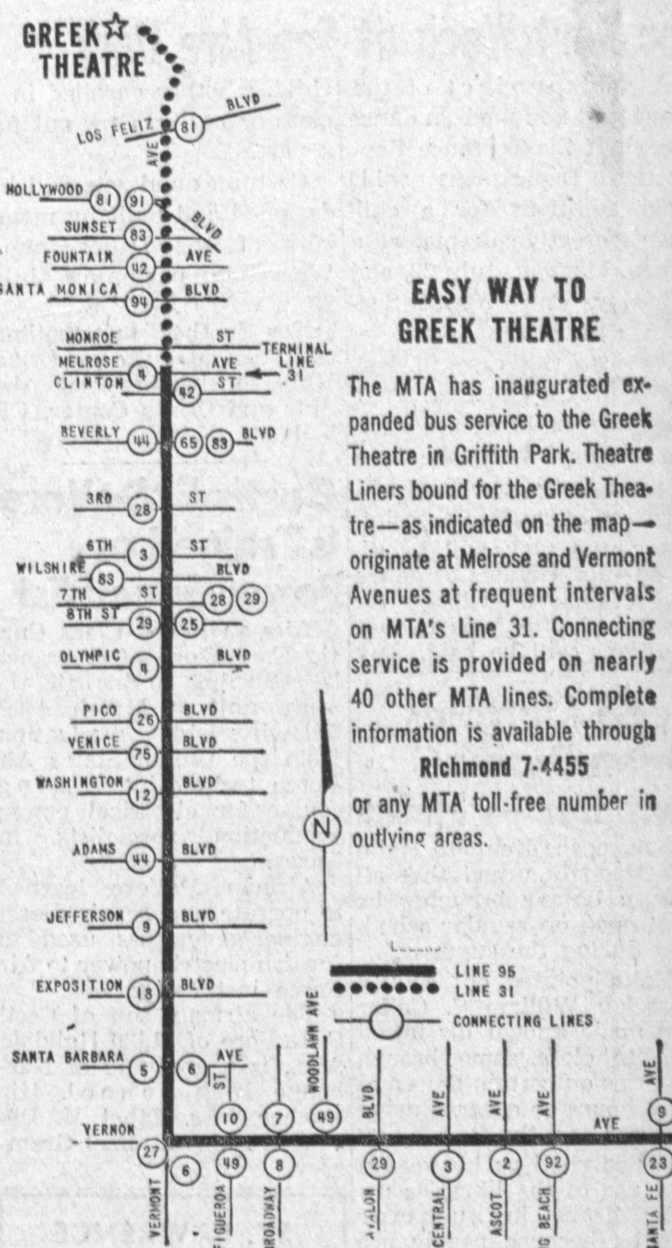

The Men of Note, including Ward, Jim Ackley, Tom Scott, Bill Richmond and Bruce Bransby, also won first place in the combo division. The Monterey Park Crystaltones and Continental Jazz Quintet, of Redondo Beach and Torrance, won second and third places, respectively.

Granada Hills High School coed Francine Shiffman, of Northridge, was selected outstanding solo vocalist of the evening by jazz musicians Charlie Barnet, Benny Carter, Leonard Feather, Van Alexander and Barney Kessel, who judged the contest. Second and third places were won by Cheryl Tingle of Downey and Tina Edmondson of Lawndale.

In the big band division, the Silvertones Dance Band, featuring teenagers from Santa Fe Springs, Whittier, Pico Rivera, and La Mirada, won first place over North Hollywood's Robin Hood Dance Band and the Torrance Esquires.

Santa Monica High School edged out Montebello High School and Palmdale High School in the high school dance bands division. Sixteen Samohi teenagers were featured in the competition.

Arcadia's Freeman Trio, featuring Roger Klein, Ron Hobbs and Mark Holland, were named winners in the vocal groups section, topping the Newhall Continentals and Northridge Gems.
